Networks to Ask White House for New TV Policy

By JACK GOULD

can Broadcasting Company, nize the prerogative of the a regular newscast.

Columbia Broadcasting System President to handle his relations The White House Company plan to explain to George E. Reedy, White House press secretary, that the President dent's predilection to making addresses and to making addr work officials and Mr. Reedy tion from theatrical attractions suit himself. was arranged over a week ago, and was losing the attention of but it assumed new importance viewers who might not know after the President went on the he was on the air. air on Sunday evening in a half-hour speech on the Dominican Republic crisis.

dress were uncertain during volve a loss of revenue running much of the early part of the as high as $150,000 for a halfevening and he was finally car-ried live only on the C.B.S. net-grams have been an increasingwork.

Earlier Problems

N.B.C. network in a statement hour special presentation.

for which there was reportedly firm advance notice of less than 15 minutes.

On Monday evening a week Testam section of the country.

N.B.C. network in a statement hour special presentation.

To carry the President on layed his appearance in hope that they would.

At today's meeting with Mr. Reedy it is believed that the N.B.C. network in a statement hour special presentation.

ago the President hurriedly arranged to speak shortly after in the Middle West and "Lassie" 7 P.M., a time that coincided on the West Coast.

the telecast.

He has available a television studio that was installed in the in TV circles that the Presi- abrupt announcements within a White House at the request of dent might purposely have wait- few days may not detract from the networks. The studio is ed until 10 o'clock to avoid ap- the effectiveness of the format

On one occasion, it was responded, the President took to carries during the preceding to the airwaves constituted in

News officials of the Ameri- ing will stress that they recog-basis or is reported as part of his speech that he had already addresses and announcements on short notice may be costing inform Mr. Reedy that they had as well as posing procedural problems for the TV industry.

A meeting between the net-Johnson was inviting competition.

But the TV executives will is viewed as a Presidential or substantial variation in camera der and is honored automatic-perspective during a speech. ally. In that case there can be problems for the TV industry.

A meeting between the net-Johnson was inviting competition over the hour that the President will speak or the change from a close-up view, it President can fix the time to becomes more difficult for the Suit himself.

$150,000 a Half-Hour

Plans for Mr. Johnson's ad-commercial program can in-day. ly large expense to TV.

A particularly costly form of pre-emption is one that involves ferred. On Sunday evening the Last Wednesday the President was seen live only on the gram to accommodate a half-live and the President reportedly deon Monday evening a week Eastern section of the country, networks will note that the part of the Ed Sullivan show sudden scheduling of White

The TV networks also were bulletins read by an announcer alerted to the possibility of a N.B.C. carried the full speech speech, its subject matter and Presidential appearance last on film at 11:15. The network its time of presentation handi-Presidential appearance last on thim at 11.10. The Saturday night, it was learned, said yesterday it believed it had caps orderly planning, but the President did not make followed a sound journalistic A matter receiving informal course.

manned virtually around-the-pearing at the same time as in emergencies. clock. "Bonanza," the most popular But it was a

Representatives of the three television networks will appeal to the White House today for more time to prepare for appearances by President Johnson.

The seal serves as a cue for the House and the television networks and individual stations to make the switch to Washington and to allow for introduction of the President.

The networks at today's meetment of the question of how decisions are made on whether a presidential address or state.

The networks at today's meetment of the question of how decisions are made on whether a presidential address or state.

The networks at today's meetment of the president of how decisions are made on whether a president and the television networks of how decisions are made on whether a president and the television networks of how decisions are made on whether a president and the television networks of how decisions are made on whether a president and the television networks of how decisions are made on whether a president has been major front-page news.

On Sunday night President has been major front-page news.

The networks at today's meetment of how decisions are made on whether a president has been major front-page news.

On Sunday night President is seen live, on a delayed has or is reported as part of the president has been major front-page news.

White House to announce that chine. the President will speak on an important matter but not make an official request, the proce-Pre-emptions of a regular dure that was followed on Sun-

Sunday Volunteers Scarce

Under Sunday's procedure, network officials, who may not know the contents of the speech must decide whether it should

House statements and speeches, with the regular evening newscasts of Walter Cronkite of C.B.S. and David Brinkley and Chet Huntley of N.B.C.

The mir retworks also were a true to the west coast.

N.B.C. proceeded with its permit viewers to be notified in advance of a Presidential appearance. The networks are also were the program for news so expected to contend that uncontend that uncontend the program of t > discussion in TV industry cir-There was some speculation cles is whether a succession of

But it was also argued that the air so quickly that there hour on Sunday nights.

itself an automatic measure of the importance of a speech or display of the Presidential Seal lationship between the White statement. So far, it was ob-read reappeared on the machine.

President to read the words ap-The second course is for the pearing on the prompting ma-